Chokhat's doorway to success: Will Prachi Bhatia secure a deal on Shark Tank India 4?

Mumbai, In a world where home decor is often synonymous with extravagance, Chokhat founded by Prachi Bhatia in 2018, is a Delhi-based brand on a mission to make designer home decor accessible to all. With its perfect blend of handcrafted charm and precision design, Chokhat isn't just about decor, it's about creating a sense of belonging and warmth.

Prachi's journey with Chokhat is nothing short of inspiring. A self-proclaimed animal lover and wildlife enthusiast, she pours her love for nature into every design. And now, she's stepping onto the Shark Tank India 4 stage, ready to take her brand to the next level.

"I've always believed that home decor should be a reflection of personality, not just a luxury. Chokhat is more than a brand, it's a doorway to happiness and love. I'm seeking an investment of 750 lakh in exchange for 7% equity, and I believe the Sharks will help me scale new heights!" Prachi declares passionately during her pitch.

With her infectious energy and a brand that speaks for itself, Chokhat's doorway to success is wide open. Will the Sharks take the plunge and invest in this game-changing home decor brand?

Prachi Bhatia, founder of Chokhat, speaking on a stage.

Vicky Kaushal: Through 'Chhaava', I can bring discipline into my life if I need it in future

New Delhi, Feb 13 (ANS) From putting on over 100 kilos to mastering horseback riding and sword fighting, Bollywood heartthrob Vicky Kaushal immersed himself fully in "Chhaava". He said that through this film he knows he can bring discipline into his life if he needs it in the future.

In the Lakman Utkar sectorial, Vicky is seen playing the lionhearted Maratha warrior Chhatrapati Sambhaji Maharaj, the eldest son of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, who ascended the throne following his father's demise. For his role, the actor, who is fondly tagged as the National crush, pushed the envelope when it came to his physique and looks. However, Vicky still feels whatever he did seems less as the personality he is portraying is very strong. Vicky told ANS in a conversation: "If you're making a film on such a personality and you get an opportunity, whatever you do, it'll feel a little less. Because you can do your best, but I'm sure if we go to make Chhaava today, I'll try to do something else, I'll try to give something else because that's what it deserves."

Sreejita De makes Rajnandini in COLORS' 'Doree' unmissable by styling her with personal jewellery

Mumbai, COLORS' latest drama, 'Doree' is winning hearts, and one of its most striking elements is Sreejita De's powerhouse performance as Rajnandini, the powerful daughter of the Thakurs. In the entertainment landscape where Indian television villains are defined by their signature looks, Sreejita has gone beyond the script, shaping Rajnandini as a person with an unmistakable visual identity. Taking full creative control of her on-screen appearance, Sreejita has meticulously styled Rajnandini—not just through wardrobe choices but by incorporating her own jewellery pieces, ensuring every detail reflects her character's authority. From statement earrings to intricately designed necklaces, each accessory symbolizes Rajnandini's wealth, dominance, and carefully crafted mystique. Talking about her approach, Sreejita shares, "A great villain isn't just about delivering sharp dialogues or scheming behind closed doors - it's mostly about establishing their presence. Rajnandini had to be more than just majestic - she had to command attention the moment she entered a room. I wanted her aura to be palpable, dominating the scene with her intensity. Right after reading the script, I knew Rajnandini needed a signature look, just like the most iconic female antagonists on Indian television. That's when I decided to add a personal touch—styling her with some of my own jewellery to give her a distinct presence."

Currently, in 'Doree', Rajnandini is tightening her grip on the Thakur household, orchestrating every move to dominate her own power. But as secrets unravel and challenges rise, will her carefully built empire stand the test of time?

Sreejita De is a multifaceted talent, a model, a TV host, and a versatile actress. She has worked with some of the most prominent names in the industry, including her work with the iconic film 'Dhadak' and the hit TV series 'Doree'. Her ability to bring depth and nuance to her characters has earned her a loyal fan base and critical acclaim.

As Rajnandini's story unfolds, fans are eagerly watching Sreejita De's performance, captivated by her commanding presence and the intricate details of her character's visual identity.
